TERRIBLE HEAT IN NEW YORK

The Ambulances of the Different Hospitals Kept Busy.

A Sickening Report from Chicago Bread Bodies Found Among Lumber Heaps-Philadelphians Suffer from the Hot Wave-Crops Hurning Up to Connecticut Mills Idle on Account of the Broath. New York, Aug. 11.—To-day was the hottest 11th of August that New York has known in twenty years. At 8 o'clock this morning the thermometer at the Signal Service Station recorded 98 degrees. At noon it was 93

The humidity was 83 per cent at 8 o'clock this morning, and at that high figure it stood all the morning and after-

A large increase in the death rate was noted, which is attributed directly to the intense heat. Thirty cases of prostrations from heat were reported to the police, and the ambulances of the different hospitals were kept busy carrying persons of all ages and sexes to those institutions.

all ages and sexes to those institutions.

Several persons were driven insone by the teat, and one of them. Charles Wiel, of Brithseport, Conn., tried to shoot a

It is estimated that at least fifty persons who were sick and weak had their deaths hasiened by the hot wave.

All the country east of the Mississippi is in the hot wave.

Terrible Drouth in Connecticut.

Terrible Drouth is Connecticut,
PLAINFIELD, Conn., Aug. 11.—This has been one of the hottest days in years. The drouth is something startling and all late crops are burning up in the ground. Early crops have ripened so quickly that they are badly dwarfed. The rivers, ponds and all other mill streams are lower than for years and many mills in this section have been compelled to stop for want of water. All through the valleys of the Vantie, Quinnebungh and Shetnoket rivers mills are idle. Pashaug Lake, that dovers 14,000 acres, is nearly dry. Unloss rain comes quickly both farmers and laborers will suffer great loss.

Philadelphians Feel the Heat.

Philadelphians Feel the Heat.

Philadelphians Aug. 11.—The thermometer in this city to-day reached this highest point of the summer, baving struck an average of 97 degrees. Not only has the weather been hot but there has been a great amount of moisture in the air, which has caused a large number of sunstrokes. Everyone who was able to get out of town has gone and the atreets are practically deserted. Sergt. Day promises that this is only the beginning of the august not wave.

Sudden Deaths in Chleage,

Ciucado, Aug. 11.—Women dropping dead while washing, dead bodies found among tumber beaps, men falling from he wagons and drays were the thermom-sters that registered the day's host. A number of deaths occurred on the streets and helf a dozen more in the hospitals where the overcome patients had been
